WECOMI'S PICTURES

GEORGE BOND, tousled Wecomi photographer, perched at the railroad crossing (no commercial plug intended) waiting for a football parade and pep rally to come into focus. Through the book will be found his work of which we are very proud. He has done, we believe, a splendid job in carrying out the informal pictorial theme we have used in this book. Due credit must also be given to Bud Purrington for his contributions, and of course to Orlin Kohli, our commercial photographer.

WECOMI'S COVER: Through the slush of a February thaw, our photographer, on assignment, snapped a group of girls leaving school. While this picture may not be the finest view of our school, it shows it as we see it many days during the year.

SPEAKING OF PICTURES

Oh, Wheaton Alma Mater
May thy noble standards be
Forever lifted higher

And may thy honor never fading
Lend its luster to thy fame.
Oh, Wheaton, we loyally

NIGHT VIEW

MAN OF THE YEAR—

Without a doubt, one of the most active and interesting men in Wheaton Community High School this past year was Mr. J. Everett Bussart. In reviewing his influence and popularity the members of this Wecomi Staff had little trouble in choosing him as the MAN OF THE YEAR.

Born July 9, 1903 and reared on a farm near Paris, Illinois, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Bussart received his first education in a one-room country school. He drove a horse and buggy six miles to Paris high school each day of his high school career.

Receiving his B.S. at Illinois in 1925, he took a job in the research laboratories of the State Department of Agriculture. Later he was promoted to nursery inspector, a job which he has kept every summer.

In September, 1926, he started teaching biology at Arthur Township High School. Mr. Bussart came to W.C.H.S. in 1929 and has remained our beloved instructor ever since.

He became a member of Sigma Delta Sigma, at Illinois University.

During the summers of 1932-3-4-5 he worked off his M.S. and wrote his thesis about parasite of the cucumber beetle.

Mr. and Mrs. Bussart own their home at 425 E. Illinois Street and are members of the St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church of which Mr. Bussart is a councilman. Their son, Dean, is in the fourth grade at Lowell School.

Although Mr. Bussart has never been in a position to attract much attention because of the nature of his work, all students who have had general science or biology under him have felt the keen friendliness and deep humor which have always characterized his classes. His work as treasurer of the A.B.C. has gone almost unheeded and his genuine interest and guidance to freshmen has received little mention. But in consideration of his work and his interest and his friendliness, the members of the staff of this Wecomi, representing the Senior Class and the school at large, are proud to be able to dedicate this volume to such a man as J. Everett Bussart, the MAN OF THE YEAR.

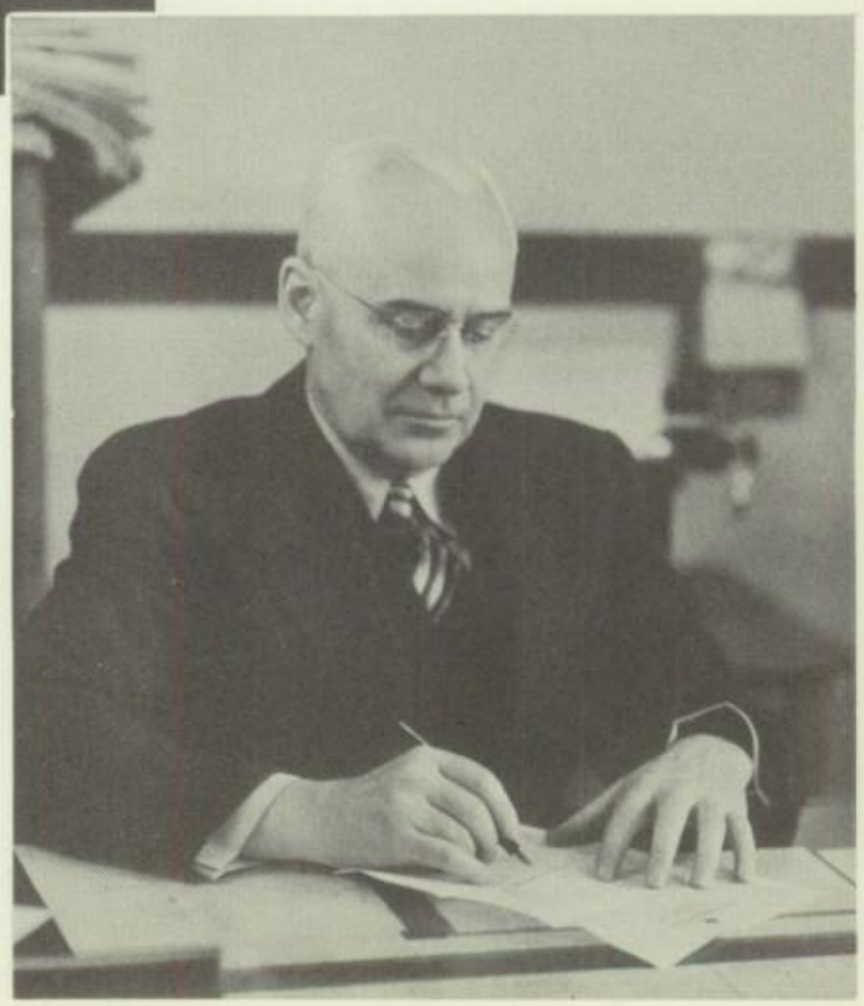
Don't let this picture frighten you away! Beneath the surface the diplomats of our school are really a fine, cultured group of people. You'll agree with this statement after you've glanced through the next few pages, for here you'll find pictures and write-ups of all the diplomats from the school board to the janitors and office help including all your favorite teachers.

K. K. TIBBETTS

MR. KIEM K. TIBBETTS was born in Salem, Iowa. He first taught at a small country school called "Dixie." Later he taught in several Minnesota schools, receiving most of his college education in the summer. He attended Oberlin, and the Universities of Minnesota and Chicago. The thesis he wrote to earn his M.A., "The Financial Condition of the Wheaton Public Schools," is in the high school library. Mr. Tibbetts came to Wheaton in 1928, and is now the Wheaton superintendent of schools.



SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

M. F. ROBERTS

MR. MORRIS F. ROBERTS was born just outside of Philadelphia. He spent twelve years of his life in the New England states, and three in North Dakota. The rest of the time he has traveled from one end of the continent to the other. He says he enjoys life because it is full of humor. Mr. Roberts attended Harvard, Wisconsin U, and the North Eastern Conservatory of Music. He has taught at many schools, both private and public, and has been Wheaton High School principal since 1929.

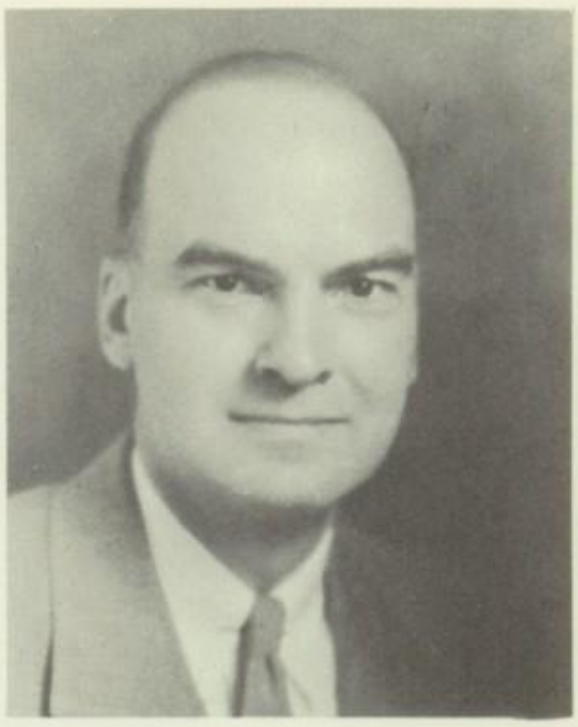
PRINCIPAL OF WHEATON HIGH

BOARD OF EDUCATION

MR. HENRY JACKSON BURT started life as a Westerner. He was born in Salt Lake City, Utah, but he came to Wilmette Public Schools for his grammar school training. After attending New Trier High School in Winnetka, he entered the University of Illinois for further education. There he joined the Sigma Pi fraternity. Mr. Burt has lived in Wheaton since 1921, and during that time he has married and raised a family of two fine youngsters. Patsy is seven, and Henry Jackson, Jr., is four years old. Mr. Burt is head of the Wallfill company of Chicago, though he still likes Wheaton well enough to live here.

MR. JOHN M. PLAYER was born in River Forest, Illinois, but soon became a strapping farmer boy. After attending Pleasant Hill grammar school, he received his high school education at West Chicago Community High. At the University of Illinois he obtained his B.S. and was a member of Sigma Pi. He is married, now lives in Warrenville, and has five children. John, Jr. is twelve, Virginia is ten, Lora Lee is seven, Mildred Ann is five, and Paul Edward is two years of age. Mr. Player held the position of captain of the University of Illinois wrestling team and is wrestling coach of Wheaton College at present.

MRS. MYRTLE H. McCARTY, who is the Board's secretary, has also lived in Wheaton since her birth. She attended the Wheaton grade school and graduated from W.C.H.S. in 1907. She also joined the Big 3 a high school sorority, which was dissolved soon after formation. Mrs. McCarty has two children. Thomas is a graduate of Illinois University, and James is a member of our own high school. In recalling her stay at Wheaton High, she mentioned that she belonged to the first competitive girls' basketball team in the state. These girls of our Alma Mater played surrounding towns such as Austin and Oak Park.



MR. CARLTON L. FISCHER, president of the Board of Education, is a very staunch Wheatonite. He was born here, spent his childhood here and attended the Longfellow grade school. For more advanced education he roamed the halls of our own Wheaton Community High School and then entered Wheaton College. There he joined the Excelsior literary society and received his A.B. at graduation. He is married and has four children. Stanley is eighteen; Richard is sixteen; John is thirteen, and Roger is five years old. Mr. Fischer spent fourteen months overseas in the past World War as lieutenant in the field artillery.

MR. ROBERT R. KIMBELL has been very much interested in education throughout his life. He was born in Chicago, and there he received his primary training at the James Monroe grade school. He completed his public schooling at Carl Schurz Technical High School. From the University of Illinois he graduated with a B.S. degree. Still eager for more advanced education, Mr. Kimbell attended John Marshall Law School in Chicago where he obtained his LL.B. He has married and is the proud father of two children. His daughter, Dorothy, is nine; and his son, Robert, Jr., is six.

MISS DOROTHY ALLEN received her B.S. from Iowa State College in Ames, Iowa. As a rule she travels during her vacation, but didn't last summer. If given a million dollars, she would spend it all in one big lump and have a good time doing it. While in high school, she liked typing, and her favorite color is orchid.

MR. DONALD C. BURGER has his A.B. from Hanover College and his M.A. from Indiana U. If he had a million dollars, he would buy some government bonds and spend the rest for fishing in Tahiti. Mr. Burger is head of the science department and the annual's adviser. He is an amateur radio operator, or "ham."

MISS HELEN CHILES has obtained her A.B. from MacMurray College and her M.A. from the University of Illinois. She would first invest a million dollars wisely and then do her best to help people who are so deserving. Travel would also play a part in her great expenditure. Latin has always been her pet subject.

MR. RALPH BOYDEN attended Dakota Wesleyan, Parsons College, Northwestern, and Lewis Institute. If he received a great deal of money, he would give it all to help high school and college graduates get a start in life. Math was his favorite high subject. He teaches in the summer and enjoys playing chess in his spare time.

MR. CHARLES COLIN has his B.A. from Illinois College, and his M.A. from the University of Illinois. If he had a considerable sum of money he would travel around the world and then stay in a mellow climate. His sole hobby is sports, especially basketball, but he enjoys playing baseball in the summer.

MR. J. EVERETT BUSSART has his B.S. and M.S. degrees from the University of Illinois. If he received a fabulous fortune, he said he would probably die worrying what to do with it. Mr. Bussart works as a nursery inspector for the State Agricultural department during the summer. His hobby is insect collection and identification.

FACULTY

MISS MARCIA COWEN received her Ph.B. at University of Chicago. She would spend a million dollars in travel, especially to Hawaii, but not to Europe at the present time. She likes to travel and spent last summer at the New York World's Fair and at Cape Cod. English was her favorite high school subject. Her hobbies are hiking and photography.

MISS MARTHA C. DOUGLASS attended the University of Missouri and obtained her R.N. from Mount Sinai Training School for nurses in New York City. If she had a large amount of money, she would establish an orphans' home near the ocean or in Pennsylvania, but she is afraid a million wouldn't go far enough. She likes to camp in Maine.

MR. HERBERT H. HODGES received his B.Ed. from Western Illinois State Teachers College at Macomb. With a million dollars he would gladly coach track from morning 'til night—for a hobby. He would also enjoy seeing more of this old world, spending his winters in Florida deep-sea fishing. Latin was his favorite subject.

MISS MARGARET DIRKS has her B.S.M. and M.S. from the Columbia School of Music and Northwestern University. One thing she would buy with an enormous sum is an airplane. Since she likes flying, she would travel all over the world, piloting herself some of the time. She spends her summers touring the West. She liked mathematics in high school.

MR. ROBERT HORSLEY obtained his B.S. in Education at the University of Illinois. If he were given an extensive fortune, he would buy a lot of nice things for his wife. However, he wouldn't quit coaching; he likes it too well. He is a director of a boys' camp during part of the summer, and his hobby is listening to the radio.

MISS GRACE FELGAR attended Iowa Wesleyan College and the University of Minnesota where she was awarded her A.B. and M.A. degrees. If a fortune fell in her lap, she would take all her close friends and move to a warmer climate. She would do what she wanted to from then on. Miss Felgar is an ardent admirer of "Pooh."

FACULTY

MISS TILLIE HOUTS earned her B.S. from the State Teachers College, Maryville, Ohio. She also attended Fredric Mizen Art Academy and the Chicago Art Institute. With a vast sum of money she would travel around the world, hoping to find peace and quiet, with plenty of good music and scenery to flavor the trip. Her summer sport is tennis.

MR. JOHN KEYES has his B.E. degree and attended Western State Teachers College, U. of Colorado, and U. of Iowa. Since his hobby is fishing, if he ever received a million dollars, he would buy himself a lake and then fish and sleep. He enjoyed study hall the most in high school. Besides fishing he likes hunting and ping pong.

MISS EDITH McCORMICK has her B.A. from the University of Michigan. She would like to enlarge greatly upon her antique glass collection, and would do so if she received a million dollars. She liked English in high school, and now teaches it. She spends her summers in school or traveling. Her hobby is cooking and recipe collecting.

MISS ELIZABETH HUSTED received her Ph.B. from Denison University and her M.A. from Columbia. If she possessed the fabulous sum of one million dollars she would travel the peaceful portions of the globe, which are now few in number. In high school she favored history above her other subjects. Her one hobby is helping G.R.

MISS LORREE M. MARANVILLE has her A.B. and M.A. degrees from Knox College and the University of Wisconsin. If she had access to a million dollars she would give half of it to the Finns and spend the other half globe trotting, especially in Europe. Her two outstanding hobbies are swimming and reading. The color she likes best is white.

MISS J. MIRIAM LEEDLE attended the University of Chicago, and was awarded her A.B. at the University of Illinois. Upon receipt of a million dollars she would bury most of it, and use the rest to travel where there was colorful scenery. Miss Leedle enjoys playing the piano and organ, doing so in her spare moments.

FACULTY

MISS JENNIE MINER, who is head of the Home Economics department, earned her B.S. at the Iowa State Teachers College, and her M.S. from the University of Chicago. If she suddenly inherited a fortune, she would try to live on its interest. Much of it she would give to needy people. Miss Miner likes to read and play golf.

MISS AGNES MONTGOMERIE has her Ph.B. from the University of Chicago. She has always wanted a rose garden, so with a million dollars she would buy a large estate, hire a gardener, and raise roses. Also, Miss Montgomerie would have a swimming pool and a golf course. Art and English were her favorite high school subjects.

MISS ABBY PRENDERGAST has received two degrees; her B.S. from Wheaton College, and her M.S. from Northwestern. She has great plans for a million dollars. She would buy a large portion of the North Woods and fifty canoes, then she would start a camp for orphans. After studying at Columbia last summer, she went on a short canoe trip.

MR. HAROLD MONSON has received his A.B. degree. He attended St. Olaf's College and the University of Wisconsin. After recovering from the shock of receiving a million dollars, if he ever did, he would travel to the best spots in the world for fishing and hunting. Mr. Monson studies law when not teaching world history.

MR. MORRIS F. ROBERTS, principal of Wheaton High, earned his A.B. at Harvard University, and his M.A. at Wisconsin U. He has always wanted to travel in a yacht, and this he would do if he ever received many thousands of dollars. He would take movies all along the way. Mr. Roberts enjoys symphonic music.

MR. ARNOLD OLSBO received his B.S. at Eastern State Teachers College, South Dakota, and his B.S. at University of Chicago. He also attended the University of Colorado. If he had a large sum of money he would see the world, especially during the war "when there is more excitement." He doesn't like to be idle during vacation.

MR. FRANK H. SANDHOLM has his A.M. degree from University of Illinois. If he inherited a large quantity of money, he stated that he would, first of all, sit down and count it. Then he would start an endowment in Wheaton, he's not quite sure just what kind. Mr. Sandhólm enjoyed history in high school and likes to visit historical monuments.

MR. K. K. TIBBETTS received his B.A. at Oberlin College, and his M.A. at the University of Chicago. He would be selfish with his million dollars and spend a good deal of it on himself. He would also like to build an addition on the school and make some improvements on the present part. Mr. Tibbetts enjoys the study of geology.

MISS JOSEPHINE WIGGINS attended the Valparaiso University. She says that she would travel around the world after the war was over if she had a million dollars. and that after saving some she would donate large sums since with a million dollars you "can afford to be generous." She spent last summer in Michigan and Wisconsin.

MISS GLADYS SCHARNWEBER has her B.A. from the University of South Dakota. Last summer she spent five weeks of graduate work in commerce at the University of Chicago. By means of a million dollars she would visit important spots in the United States, Canada, Mexico, South America, and Hawaii, but not Europe right now.

MR. WARREN C. WRIGHT's B.Ed. came from Oshkosh State Teachers College, and his M.Ed. from the University of Chicago. If he were given a tremendous sum of money, he said he would spend his time trying to beat out the income taxes on it. However, Mr. Wright says he's not worrying much though, for he gave up hoping long ago.

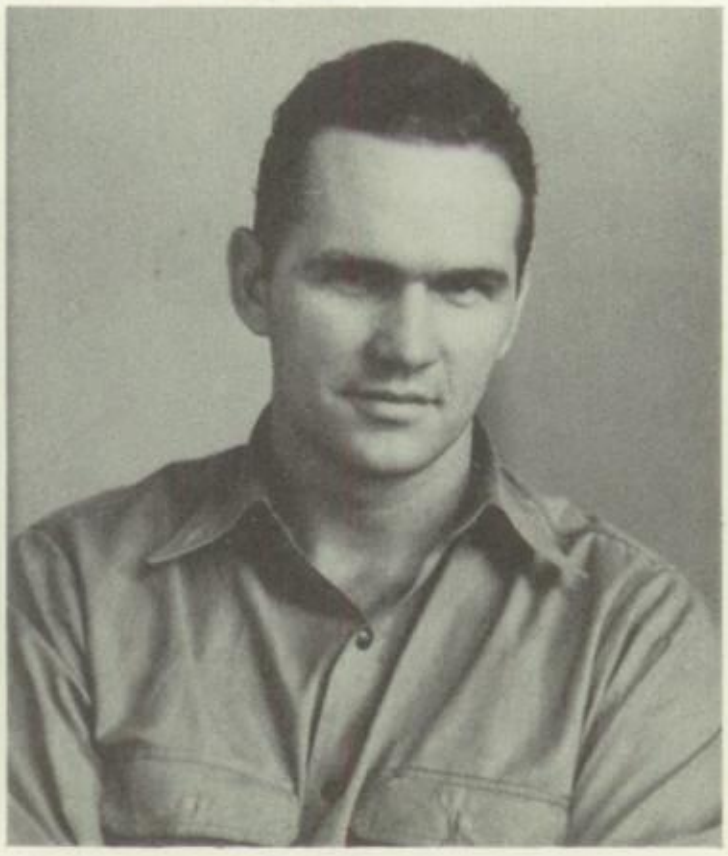
MR. CHARLES B. VAUGHN has his B.Ed. from Western State Teachers College and his M.A. from Columbia University. If he had a million dollars, he would salt enough away so that he would have a guaranteed income, then he would give the rest away before it got the best of him. Mr. Vaughn liked history in high school, and now teaches it here.

FACULTY

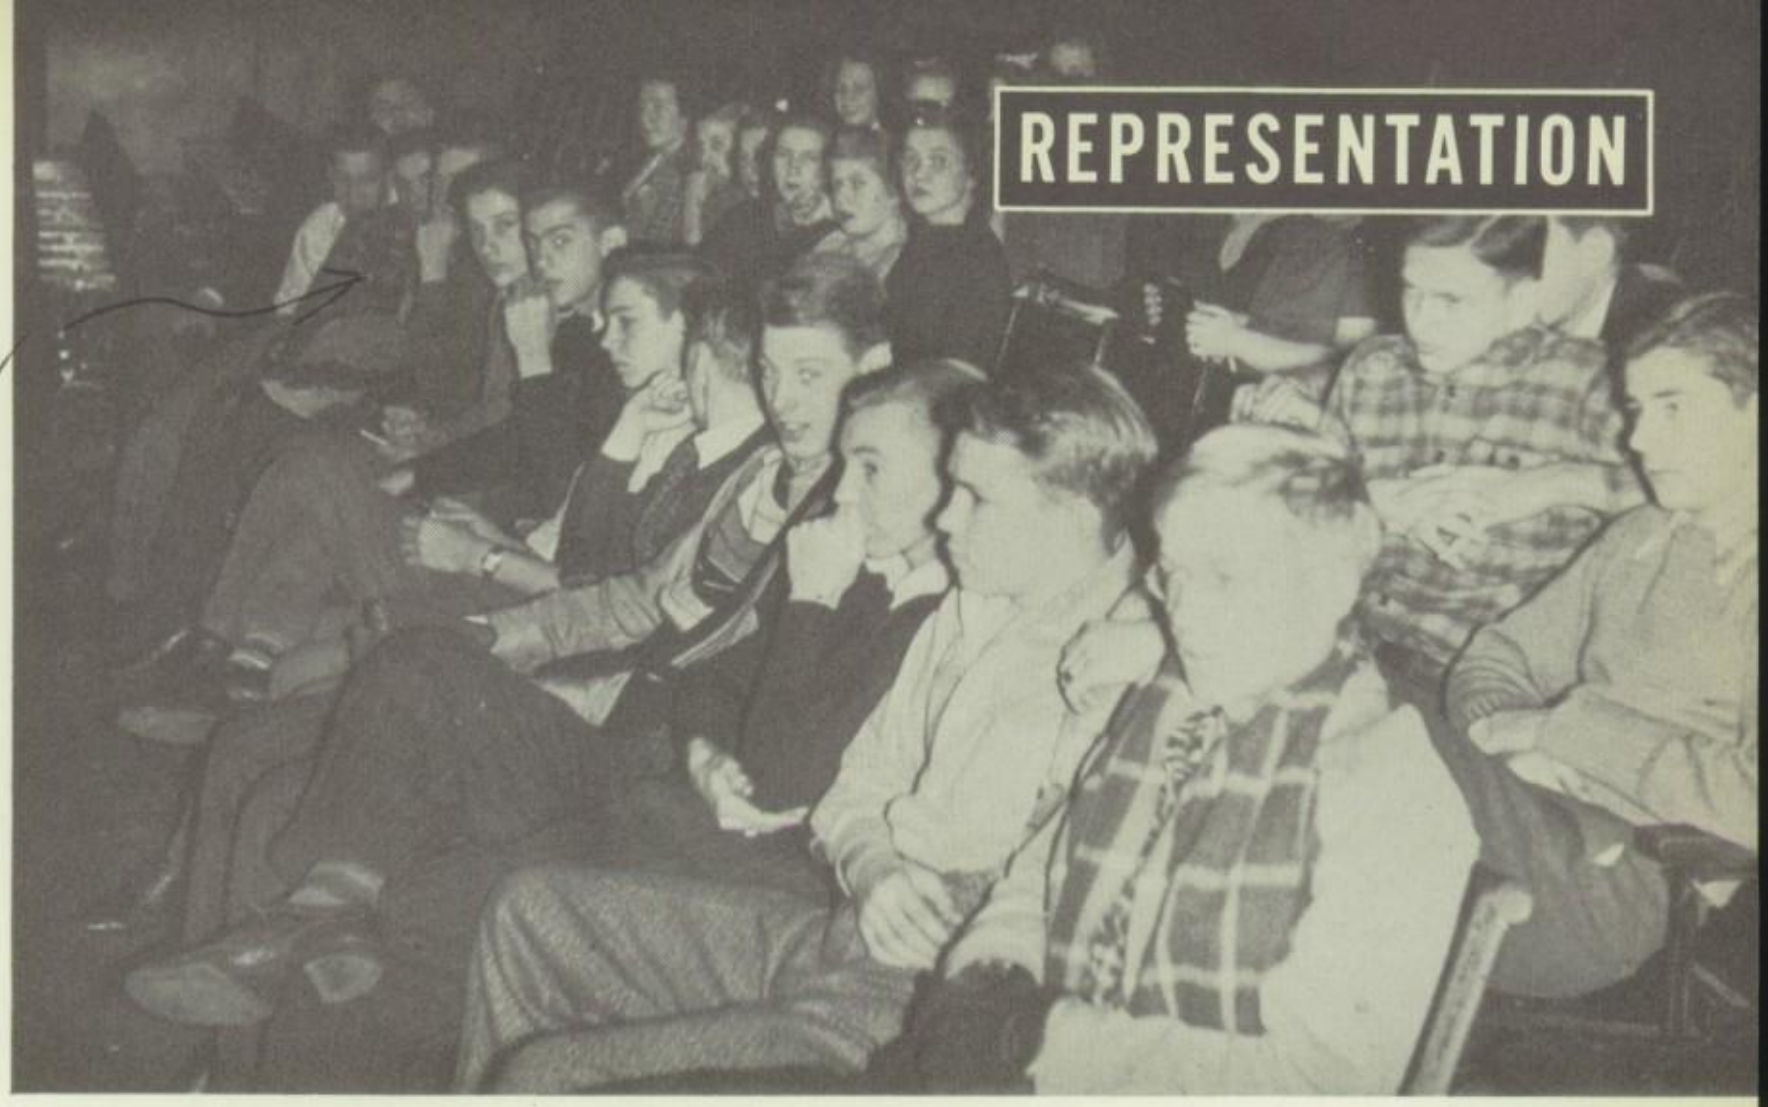
Amid the rush of every school day, Misses Hintze, Jensen, and Tullar, the office girls, come through looking just as well-groomed late in the afternoon as early in the morning. Miss Hintze is Mr. Roberts' secretary but gives us our detention too. Miss Jensen enjoys being secretary to Mr. Tibbetts and is a great sport at horseback riding. At present Miss Tullar is interested in furnishing a home, for this is her last year here.

Mr. Rogers started to be a janitor in the recreation hall in Warrenville. Since then he has given 15 years service to Wheaton High. He enjoys working in the garden.

Owen Reynolds has been janitor for 6 years. During this time he has become superintendent janitor of all Wheaton schools. For recreation he likes to golf and bowl.



O E Rogers



This studious looking body of scholars is nothing less than the Student Conference listening to Mr. Monson explaining that the act they've just passed is illegal. These people are elected by their fellow classmates to represent the student body in the affairs of the school. In order to further the work of this great organization, the student body will now be represented.

STUDENT CONFERENCE

Student Conference is the voice of the students in school government. Under the guidance of Mr. Monson this organization takes up school problems of all kinds. Janet LaSalle was the president of Student Conference for the first semester, and Bob Bauler for the second semester.

The Student Conference meets once a week in the auditorium. Its members are chosen by the home rooms. Each representative serves three semesters. The conference issues activity tickets, and awards activity pins for points earned in the clubs in addition to its many other activities.

President Janet La Salle calls the meeting to order while Secretary Dorma Mae Zarbock prepares to read the minutes of the last meeting.

Miss Leedle, Mr. Roberts, and Mr. Monson, advisors, look on with interest, amazement, and ennui respectively.

"To represent my home room in the Conference honestly and faithfully, to strive constantly to inculcate the principles of good citizenship in my home room, and to work loyally and earnestly for the effective operation of student participation in the government of our school; these ideals will receive my best support as long as I am a member of the Student Conference of the Wheaton Community High School."

ORGANIZATIONS

The organization pictured above is without a doubt the brass quartet. This is only one of the many groups of this kind in school designed to vary your interest. Do you want your interest varied? If so, the next few pages ought to do the trick. Who knows, you might even find a likeness of your countenance beaming forth at you from some obscure corner.

SCIENCE CLUB

Best wishes
Dave Hammond

This year Science Club started off with a rush and duly elected Robert Barton as president, George Bond as vice president, and Frank Pierce as secretary-treasurer. The club was then divided into two sections, the Camera Club and the Radio Club . . . Camera Club held many interesting photograph contests during the year. Their meetings consist of lectures by many prominent photographers, slide films sent to them by the Eastman Kodak Company, and print criticisms. George Bond is president of this division . . . Rudolf Feilitz organized the Radio Club. In the meetings the members had D-X contests, discussions of new radio developments, and the boys brought in new equipment for the club's criticism. Their adviser is Mr. Burger.

Red Stanford discusses the internal workings of a radio receiver with Ferdinand Board, Francis Minor, and Warren Grant of the Radio Club.

Lots of luck to a good classmate player

HANDICRAFT CLUB

Eleanor Herschman leads the Handicraft Club and is ably supported by Doris Streitberger, vice president; Shirley Olsen, secretary; and Alice Kuhn, treasurer. Miss Miner acts as sponsor and adviser. They have a large loom on which they do their weaving. Other articles they make are different pieces of jewelry out of silver such as rings and bracelets, also purses from beads and many leather articles. Knitting and crocheting take up much of their time. Although the club is only in its second year, they have a merit system. For every hour of work done at school one point is given, and one half a point for every hour of work spent at home. The different awards are bronze, silver, gold pins and a gold pin with a guard. Besides their regular meetings the girls have a Pot Luck supper once a month.

Betty Taylor, president, addresses the French Club (in French, we hope).

FRENCH CLUB

The president of the FRENCH CLUB is Betty Taylor. The other officers are vice president, Louise Schmidt; secretary, Emily Millett; and treasurer, Doris Streitberger. The members have very diligently been modeling puppet heads out of clay. After the clay has hardened papier mache strips are put on. When this has fully hardened the figures are sandpapered and then painted to resemble various characters in plays. The heads are made to look very grotesque and the features are over done. One of the outstanding meetings of the year was held on Washington's Birthday. A few of the members gave different reports: comparing Napoleon and Washington, summing up the situation in France today and other interesting topics. Miss Houts, Mr. Tibbetts, and Mr. Roberts were guests of the club. The sponsor of the club is Miss Maranville.

LATIN CLUB

This year the Latin Club elected Elaine Carson as first Council, Alberta Johnson as second Council, and Natalie Sweeney as Quaestor. The object of the club is to give the members a background of Roman life and culture. In the meetings they have different reports on such subjects as the school training of the boys and girls and comparing Caesar with Mussolini. They also enjoy Latin spelldowns and Roman games. The main event of the year is the Roman Banquet which takes place near the Ides of March. Everyone comes dressed in a toga, for they do as the Romans did. There is entertainment in between the courses and also after the meal. Miss Chiles, the Latin teacher, is the adviser for the club.

GIRL RESERVES

The House of Dreams has been the theme for the year on which to base the programs. The foundation of the house was the Recognition Service in which the Freshmen and the new students were made members. There have been many outside activities; among them were the Freshman Heart Party, the Father-Daughter Coffee, the Mother-Daughter Tea, and the Bake Sale. Each year the G. R. helps with the Christmas party for the children. Other projects are baskets for the poor at Thanksgiving and gifts for the children out at Prince Crossing. The officers of the club are Betty Donnan, president; Gwyneth Meyer, vice president; Dolores Uhlrich, secretary; and Betsy Ross, treasurer. Miss Husted and Miss McCormick are the advisers. There is also a cabinet to assist the other officers.

Margaret Beck, Betty Donnan, Elaine Gustavson, Shirley Halenza, Eleanore Herschman, Janet LaSalle, Jane Massman, Emily Millett, Betsy Ross, Virginia Sauer, and Dolores Uhlrich are the Seniors who received rings, and the Juniors are Ruth Beck, Mary Alice Boyd, Bernice Carlson, Pat Crossley, Joan Davis, and Gwyneth Meyer. Plaques were given to Nancy Aspinwall, Gypsy Burton, Kathryn Edwards, Gloria Fitzsimmons, Marie Herran, Betty Ryall, Evelyn Peterson, and Betty Taylor. There are also G. HI-Y

THE HI-Y, which is sponsored by Mr. Vaughn and Mr. Sandholm and also Mr. Ryall, who is secretary of the Y.M.C.A., is the club for boys who have high ideals. "To create and maintain a high standard of Christian living in the community and high school," is their motto. These boys of the Hi-Y must show good sportsmanship, use clean speech, have clean scholarship, a clean mind, and live a clean life. The officers of the club in the last year have been president, Hugh Coats, who left school to attend another in Wisconsin, thus automatically making vice president, Richard Reeder, the president; Warren North replaced Reeder as vice president; secretary, Dave Northrop; treasurer, Kenneth Witt; sergeants-at-arms, Robert Loveless and Walter Sauer. The club has not been divided into two groups as has been the custom in previous years. It is now one big happy family.

C. B. Vaughn, the experienced adviser of the Hi-Y in our high school, poses for the Wecomi photographer.

HI-Y

The programs of the Hi-Y have been varying in style. They dealt mainly with youth, war, peace, religion, vocations, and home life. There were panel discussions, movie reels, and speakers to entertain the boys. The most outstanding event of the year was the conference held in Wheaton on December 2-3-4. Boys from the Northern Illinois district came to hear new ideas of youth and peace which was the theme of the conference. Dr. Paul Harris was the main speaker and many others led the informative discussions. Some of those forums were how boys should act at home; attitude toward dates and girls; and foreign relationships. All Wheaton boys were invited to attend, but there were only two or three delegates from other schools. Hi-Y is a national organization with chapters all over U. S., Canada, and Mexico.

BROADCAST

The W.C.H.S. Broadcast is published every Saturday in the Wheaton Daily Journal. Lyman Anson, editor, and Dolores Belmont and Mary Jane Schutt, assistant editors, are advised by Miss Montgomery, the school librarian.

The Broadcast attempts each week to print important club news; a sports column; and other important happenings around school during the week.

There are two features which are always present in the Broadcast; one is the editorial, and the other is "Here's Who in High School." The editorial is written by almost any one of the feature writers on an important event that happens in school or is to happen soon. The "Here's Who" column describes a boy and a girl in school, and the pupils are to try to name the two before the next edition, when "Miss X" and "Mr. X" are named.

THE WECOMI

The highest goal which an annual staff may reach is the All American rating. Under the editorship of Bob Barton, we, the staff, have endeavored to attain this goal and to put forth a book of which you may be proud.

Elaine Gustavson, business manager, and her assistants, Richard Carlson and Eleanor Rhoads, have made the book a financial success through the cooperation of our Wheaton merchants and with the help from the sale of activity tickets.

In order to carry out our theme, Life, to the fullest extent, George Bond, photographer, has been at every function to secure the needed pictures. Mr. Orlin Kohli has been of great assistance by taking all the class and group pictures.

The literary department was under the direction of Dorothy Oakey, ably assisted by Emily Millett, Nancy Aspinwall, Jeanette Mittlehauser, and Ted Dexter. Dale McQuiston was the capable sports editor.

We gratefully acknowledge the helpful criticism and suggestions of our advisers Miss McCormick, Mr. Burger, and Mr. Sandhom who have helped us over the rough places on our journalistic road.

DEBATE CLUB

The Debate Club is continuing its work this year in much the same manner as it did last year. Mr. Keys is still its sponsor, and the club's aim is to develop the ability to speak easily and correctly in public.

This year the question for debate is "Should the Government Take Over the Railroads?" This question is being debated by high schools all over the country. Wheaton's debate club has a schedule for debating against neighboring schools.

Four of the members gave their debate, in brief form, for school assembly this winter, with Bob Loveless and Bob Barton upholding the question against Ilse Karner and Mary Lou Sauer.

The club has no officers, and its time is spent in learning the correct debating manner. The members are taught by Mr. Keys the correct way to speak and stand before an audience.

Miss Felgar consulting with members of the Script Club on some original work.

SCRIPT CLUB

There are only seven members in this year's Script Club, which is the school's most exclusive organization. Bob Barton is president, and Lyman Anson is the vice president. Miss Felgar works with the club, aiding and advising them.

Every year the Script Club edits a small book of the best stories, poems, and articles written by the students during the year. Some of these contributions are written by the club members, and many by the students in the various English classes. The book is sold to the students at cost price.

To enter this exclusive organization, the aspirants must write several poems or prose articles. These are read by the members, and the best ones are chosen. The authors of the best articles are then admitted to the club. Bob Loveless, Helen Llewellyn, Winkie Stevens, and Alan Soukup were the lucky candidates this year.

A. B. C.

The Athletic Board of Control manages the athletic activities of the school. As a rule its membership consists of five pupils selected from the three upper classes: two of whom are girls, and three boys: one boy and one girl who are not primarily interested in Athletics, the other girl is the President of G. A. A., the other two boys are members of teams or particularly interested in athletics. There are two extra members this year, a boy and a girl.

In addition to these seven, there are also the Coaches, one member of the faculty who acts as treasurer, and the Principal.

This Board passes upon all expenditures, appoints captains upon the recommendation of the teams, and awards all letters and numerals, and generally supervises athletic equipment. The pupil membership is determined by appointment of the Principal.

The A.B.C. shown at its regular meeting trying to balance the budget.

ART CLUB

This year the Art Club elected Alan Soukup as president, Betty Brooks as vice president, Anne Belmont as secretary, and Gwyneth Meyer as treasurer. Each member has made individual projects, such as drawing, painting, or working with leather, but the whole group has worked on a puppet stage and characters for their play which will be "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." They will exhibit their talent at North Central College, Naperville.

Modelling figures and shapes out of clay seems to be the vogue this year, because now the Art Club owns a kiln which dries and bakes the clay. At the exhibit in the spring, the members will show an interesting display of pottery, and their other projects. Miss Houts is responsible for bringing in the new and interesting work.

Jean Rogers and Joan Oliver, members of the Art Club, have a gooey time.

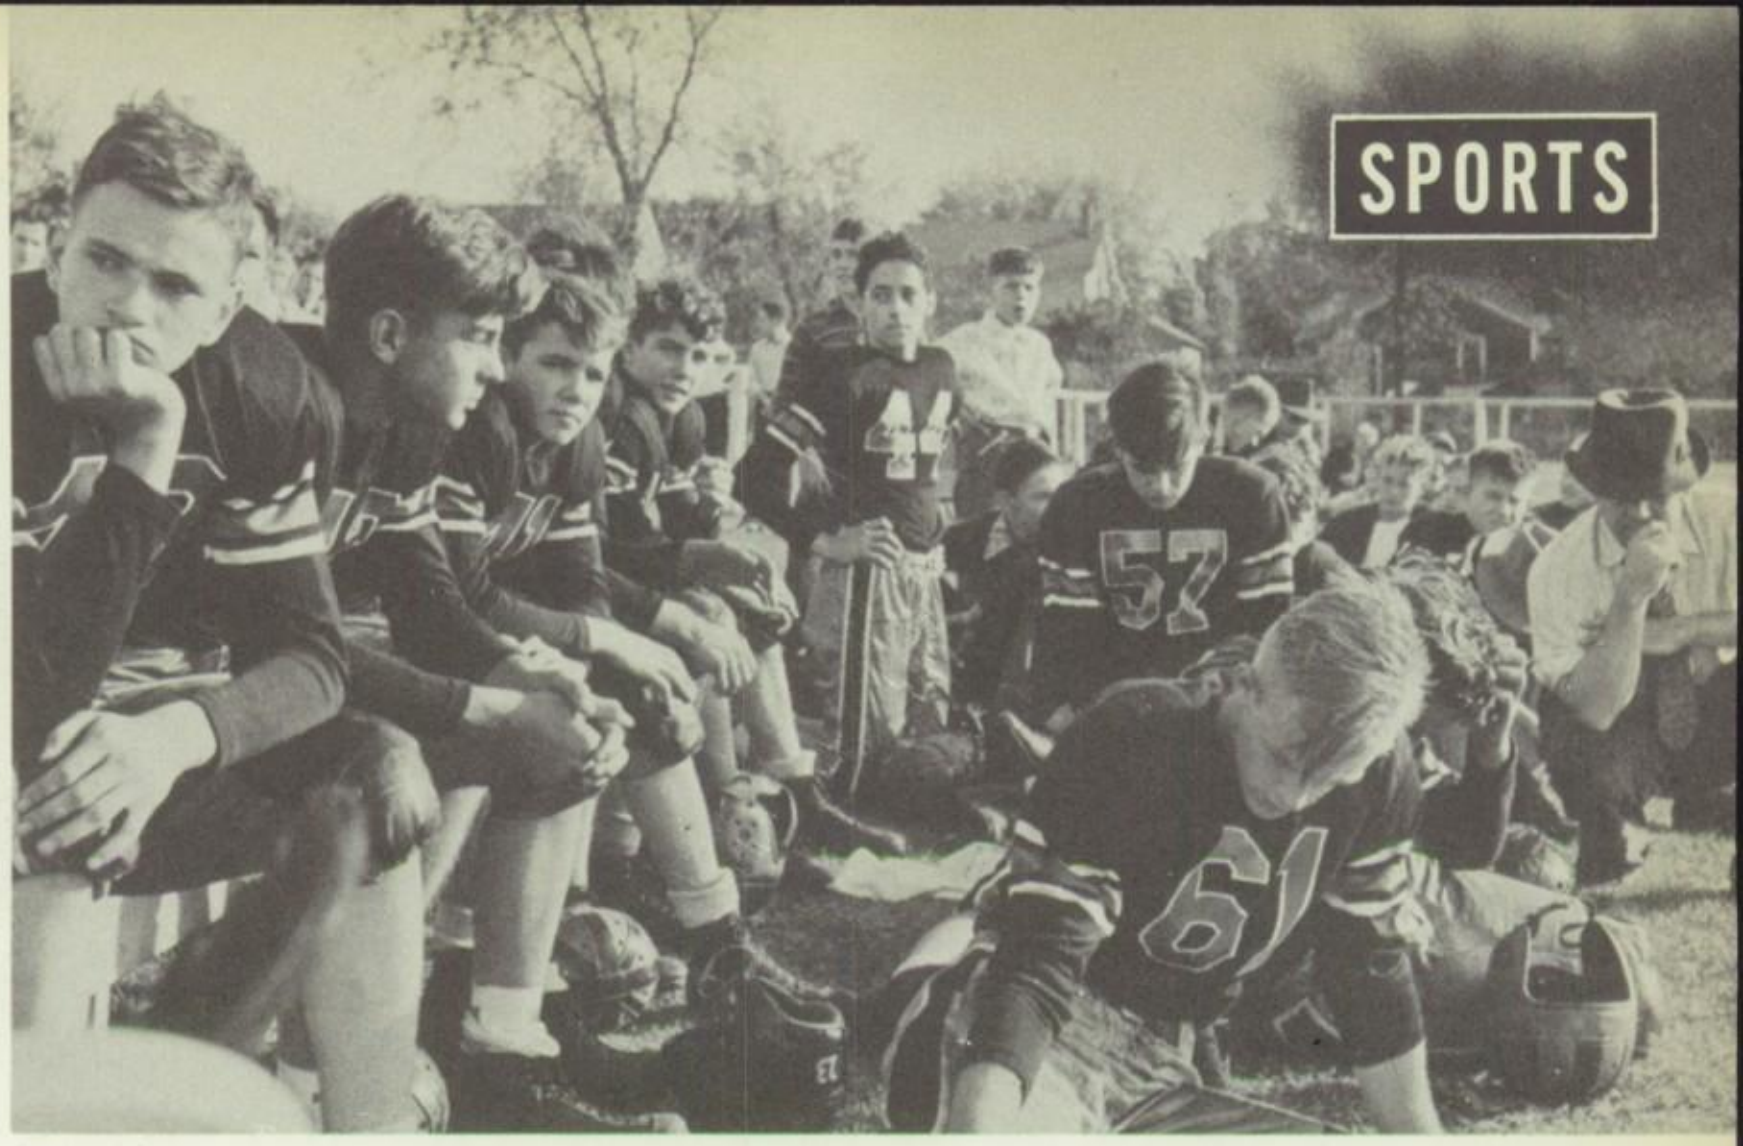
EVENTS OF THE YEAR

"The greatest events are not our noisiest."

FRIEDRICH WILHELM NIETZSCHE



Cheer up! This picture was taken at the Dundee game. The rest of the season wasn't so bad. As a matter of fact, all the teams turned in swell performances, and we're proud of our record. The next page or so will straighten you out on any score you've forgotten and also show you the handsome athletes themselves.

PRESENTING CAPTAIN BOB BIDGOOD AND COACH ROBERT HORSLEY. "Biddie" has captained the Tigers throughout the year. After completing one year of lightweight football, Bob played three years on the varsity. Mr. Horsley has completed his fourth year of coaching at Wheaton. During this time his teams have come to be feared by opponents due to two championship teams and two teams which finished near the top.

Wheaton - - - - - 6

The Tigers opened the season against Hinsdale on Grange Field with a 6-0 victory. Fumbles were numerous and the heat slowed down the game considerably. With less than a minute to go in the first quarter, Whitaker took a pass from Yarbrough and crossed for the only score of the game. Captain Bidgood's plunge for a seventh point was nullified by an offside.

West Chicago - - - 0
Wheaton - - - - 7

The Tigers drove to their first conference victory by taking West Chicago on Grange Field by a 7-0 count. Piling up 15 first downs to 3 for the Wildcats, the Tigers were set back by goal line stands until late in the fourth quarter when Red Gary broke loose for a 34 yard run. Whitaker then took a pass for the only touchdown. The team showed a great deal of improvement over the first two games. Yarbrough sparked the Tiger attack with his brilliant plunging and passing.

Glenbard - - - - 16
Wheaton - - - - 0

The widely advertised traditional battle between Glenbard and Wheaton ended in a 16-0 victory for the Bards. The fast charging Glenbard line kept the Tigers back in their own territory most of the evening.

Marshall of Glenbard accounted for both touchdowns and a conversion. On the first Glenbard play he broke loose to the Tiger six yard line and followed with a line plunge to score.

A blocked Tiger punt, recovered by Bolton in the end zone gave the Bards two more points to complete the rout.

Captain Bidgood was the standout for the Tigers with Yarbrough receiving favorable notice for his drives into the Bard line. Substitutions were numerous and the heat, which slowed up the game, kept the capacity crowd at fever pitch.

SYCAMORE - - - 0

WHEATON - - - 13

With Clint Yarbrough scoring 13 points behind a fast charging line and good blocking, the Tigers took a second conference game from Sycamore by a 13-0 count. Captain Bidgood's loss by injury inspired the team to its best performance of the season during the second half. Durfee, shifted from center to tackle, gave a good account of himself.

BATAVIA - - - - 6

WHEATON - - - 7

Wheaton barely eked out a 7-6 victory over Batavia for their third consecutive win. The Wheaton score came on the final play of the third quarter when Yarbrough tossed a pass to Durant. Yarbrough scored the extra point on a pass from Wilbur Noble. The Batavia tally also resulted from a pass. The receiver ran 33 yards through the entire Wheaton eleven, but Batavia failed to score the extra point.

WHEATON - - - 13

Friday the 13th held no scare for the Tigers as they romped over the Saints for their eighteenth consecutive conference victory. Whitaker scored on a pass and Durant converted the extra point on an end run. Yarbrough scored the second touchdown on a line plunge. Both scores came in the second quarter. The highlight of the game was the superb running of Durant.

DUNDEE - - - - 20

WHEATON - - - 0

Wheaton was dropped from the Little Seven lead when Dundee defeated them 20-0. Massier and Shult scored the points for Dundee. The Tigers held the Cardinals scoreless for the first period, but early in the second quarter, Massier scored on a double reverse play. The Cardinals rolled up the largest score on the Tigers in over two years.

GENEVA - - - - 19

WHEATON - - - 14

Geneva was victorious over Wheaton when they converted the three Tiger mistakes into scores. Geneva's first two scores came in the first six minutes. The Tigers came right back at Geneva and scored two touchdowns before Geneva went over for the third tally in the fourth quarter to win the game. Pearce played the best game he had played for Wheaton.

Head Coach Horsley and Assistant Coach Colin caught in a happy mood.

Yarbrough makes a short gain in the Batavia game which Wheaton won 7-0.

Naperville - - - - 23

Wheaton - - - - 0

The Naperville Redskins, co-champions of the Little Seven, defeated the Wheaton Tigers by a score of 23-0 on the North Central field. Naperville controlled the ball for the majority of the game with Deodiuc making two of the three touchdowns and Albrecht the third. Three conversions and a safety, scored when Albrecht blocked one of Durant's punts, completed the score.

(Upper left) Captain Robert Bidgood—All-Conference center, played three years on the varsity and one year on the lightweights. "Biddy" was the spark plug of the team this year and one of the best linemen that ever came to Wheaton High School. Bob suffered an injury to his knee and was badly missed by the team whenever he was unable to play.

(Upper middle) Robert Johnston — halfback. Bob was the lightest man on the heavyweights yet he was the hardest tackler on the entire team. He played lightweight football in his sophomore year but sustained an injury to his leg that made it impossible for him to play last year. This was his first year on the varsity.

(Upper right) Walter Sauer—tackle. "Wally" was the largest man on the team this year and one of the toughest. He was one of the best players in the line even though he has only played football for two years. Walt did a lot to bolster up the hopes of the team when they were at the lowest ebb.

(Lower left) Dale McQuiston — running guard. "Butterball" has played four years of football, two years on the lightweights and two on the heavies. He played center on the lights until he broke his hand and was shifted to guard where he has played since.

(Lower right) Judd Vear—midget guard. Judd played lightweights in his freshman and junior years at center. This year on the heavies he was shifted to guard where he was a standout in the line in spite of his size. Judd was one of the best blockers on the team.

LIGHTWEIGHTS

Robert Rendall

Wheaton copped its third victory of the season as it defeated Marmion 14-6 in a non-conference game. The Frosh-Sophs rolled up 13 first downs to two for Marmion.

The Ponies lost their last game of the season to Naperville, 13-0. The Tiger Juniors were out-played throughout the game and were unable to start any sort of an attack. This defeat dropped the Lights to third place in the conference which is the highest that they have been for several years. Mr. Olsbo, the new math teacher, coached the lightweights this year.

*—Nonconference games.

This year the Wheaton Lightweights had their best season since 1936. They won three games, lost four, and tied one.

The lights dropped their first game to Hinsdale 18-0 in spite of the fact that they played the Imps on even terms during the second half. The Generalship of Little Jimmy Gunderson was especially outstanding.

The Ponies played their poorest game of the season against Glenbard, losing 14-0. Most of the gains for Wheaton came via the air as the underclassmen completed three out of four passes. Junior Lyda was the backbone of the line.

When the heavies played the next two games against West Chicago and Sycamore, the Ponies chose up teams and had games between themselves as the visitors had no lightweight teams.

The Batavia game was the standout of the season for the Tiger Ponies as it broke their losing streak of 21 straight defeats. The final count in the 20-0 score came when Godfrey intercepted a Batavia pass in the fourth quarter and ran 80 yards to score.

The Ponies took their second conference victory of the season against St. Charles, 6-0, and lost the next game as Dundee rolled up a 26-0 score, for the Cardunal Ponies' 18th straight conference victory. Fumbling was frequent in both games.

Wheaton and Geneva played each other to a 0-0 standstill. Jack Schatz made an 80 yard goal-line dash on the first play of the game but the score was nullified because he stepped out-of-bounds near mid-field.

ALL-STARS

Bob Bidgood was the stand-out for the Tigers this season. In spite of the fact that he was out for several games with a bad knee, he was chosen as the best center in the Little Seven Conference. Bob was also picked for the third All-Chicago District team and Honorable Mention on the All-State squad. Chuck (Beans) Chesbro at left end and Clint Yarbrough at quarterback received second team ratings in the conference. Bob (Rice) Whitaker and Phil (Dutch) Durant were chosen for Honorable Mention honors at end and halfback respectively.

On the lightweights, Alan Carpenter rated the All-Conference tackle position. Evan McCallum was chosen as left halfback on the second conference team and John Hodges and Junior Lyda received Honorable Mention ratings at end and guard respectively.

The Basketball squad had a very successful season this year . . . the best since they went to the State Finals in 1929 and lost out by only two points. This year the Tiger quintet tied with Sycamore for second place in the Little Seven Conference. The Tigers lost eight games and won twelve this season.

Charles Chesbro was elected honorary captain at the end of the season.

This year Wheaton was host to the District Tournament in which eight teams competed—Leyden (Franklin Park), Hinsdale, Riverside-Brookfield, Argo, Bensonville, West Chicago, Lemont, and Wheaton. In the first bracket, Wheaton defeated Leyden while Argo defeated West Chicago. Wheaton lost to Argo who bowed to Riverside in the finals.

HEAVYWEIGHTS

The Tigers lost to their traditional rival, Glenbard, but the next week whipped Mooseheart 42-29. East Aurora eked out a close victory, but Wheaton gave the champion Dundee Cardunals the surprise of their life by holding them to a 45-35 score and then going on to win against West Chicago, St. Charles, Batavia, and Naperville in a row. Sycamore stopped Wheaton's winning streak and Geneva whipped the Tigers 32-22. In the return battle, Dundee again came out on top by a 54-27 score. The Tiger hoopsters took the next two games against West Chicago and St. Charles by sizable scores. Batavia chalked up a victory against Wheaton, but Naperville lost 36-30 in a hard fought battle. Glenbard, West-Suburban Champs, closed out Wheaton, 31-25, but the Tigers were victorious over Sycamore and Geneva to close the conference play. In the tournament, Leyden lost to Wheaton and Wheaton, in turn, lost to Argo.

The lightweights also had a very successful season, losing ten games and winning eight.

At the first of the season, it looked as if the lights would have a poor average. Wheaton failed to score a single point in the Glenbard game but the next week was much better as the lights lost to Mooseheart by only two points. The Ponies really showed their mettle as they poured in baskets against East Aurora to win, and as they held the touted Dundee lightweights to a five point lead. West Chicago was an easy victory, but St. Charles and Batavia were tough battles. Naperville won its first game against the Tiger Juniors, but Wheaton swept Sycamore and Geneva off their feet. In the return battles, Wheaton lost to Dundee but only allowed West Chicago four points—all of them on free throws. St. Charles then turned the tables and nosed out the Tigers by two points. Wheaton again shot its way to victory against Batavia but lost to Naperville. Glenbard, Sycamore, and Geneva all closed out Wheaton by close scores in the three most exciting games of the season.

This year the basketball squad had another team to act as a training ground for future basketball stars. This was the Freshman-Sophomore team, coached by our new coach, Mr.Olsbo. The Frosh-Soph had a large squad this year and many of the boys, who first went out for the team, improved so much that they were placed on the regular lightweight squad. The Frosh-Soph practiced two or three nights a week and had several practice games. The only one of their games that was on the regular varsity schedule was the West Chicago game, which Wheaton won with ease.

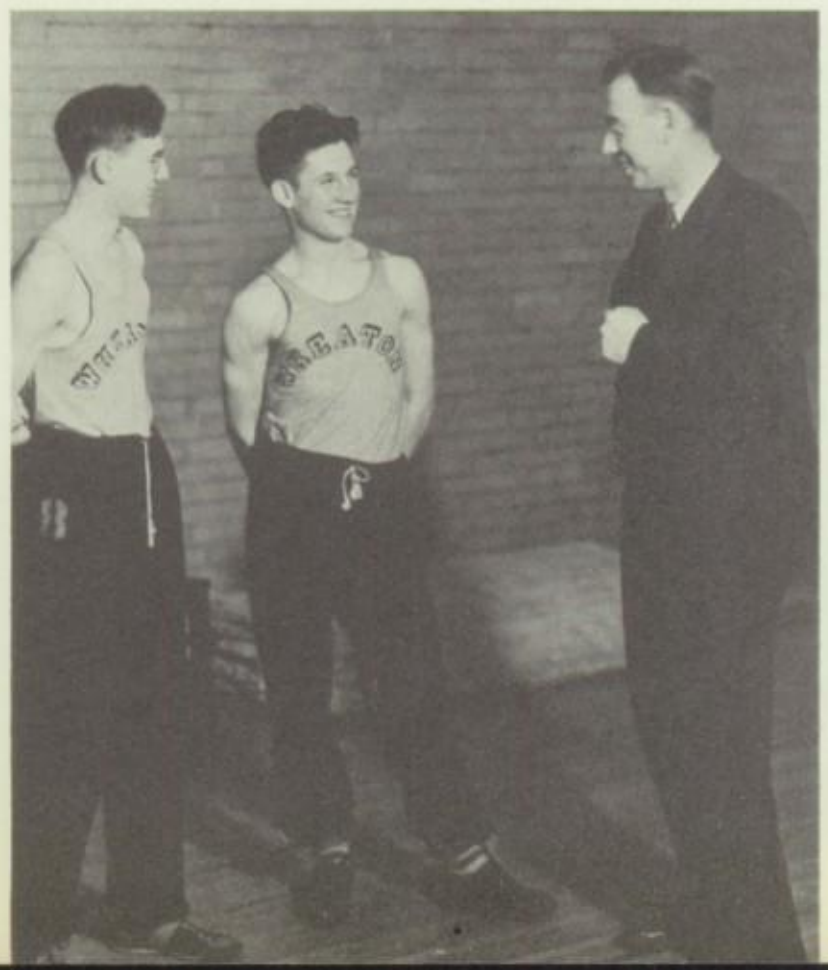
SENIORS

Carl Dreis—The dark-horse of the track team. This is Carl's first year out for track and he is holding down the post of miler. In fact, he already holds two records — The North Central College Field House record for high school milers, 4:36:9 and the mile record for the Naperville Invitational Relays, 4:43.

Melvin Grant—the other Wheaton miler. Melvin has been out for track all four years. In spite of his short stature, he nearly always manages to place and garner a few points for the team.

Harry Sell—hurdler. Harry is the high-stepping man on the team. He runs the high hurdles in fast time and is a two-year letterman.



Coach Hodges says, "This year's track team has the best selection of freshmen and sophomores that I have seen in the twelve years that I have been at Wheaton." This statement shows the bright prospects that are in store for the 1940 outdoor season and for the next few years in the future. All of the freshmen and sophomores out for track are certainly doing their best to uphold the records of last year's team. Many of the boys are managing to place along with the upperclassmen and the rest are improving steadily. The 1940 team will have to do some fast running to keep the records of the 1939 team intact. These records are: Geneseo Relays Champs, Wheaton Relays "B" class champs, runner-up in the Little Seven Conference meet, and third place in the Dupage County meet. Last year's runners also collected several points in the State meet.

Upper Picture—Carl Dreis, senior miler and star performer of the Wheaton Track Team. Lower Picture—Harry Sell, hurdler, and Melvin Grant, miler in a close conference with track Coach Hodges.

The Wheaton High track team has an enviable record. In the eight years between 1922 and 1930 Wheaton won six Little Seven track titles. Since 1928 when Coach Hodges came, the track team has received several more honors. In 1929 and 1930 Wheaton was District Champ and in 1930 the Tigers took second in the state meet with 21 points—more than any state winner has made since then with the exception of last year when York won the meet with 22 points.

Muench, Debes; FRONT ROW—Havens, Vining, Pearce, Popplereiter, Bartlett, Duncan, Oakey, Olander, Guild, Amari, M. Beck, Tucker, Clark, Gugler, Zarbock, Webster.

The Girls' Athletic Association has this year chosen Annette Olander as president, Ruth Beck as vice-president, and Dorothy Guild as secretary and treasurer.

Miss Prendergast, the leader of this organization, acts as referee and teacher, and sometimes participates in the sport herself.

This athletic club offers, as it has in previous years, basketball, soccer, volleyball, baseball, archery, badminton and track. New field hockey equipment has been purchased and the girls have added this sport to the others this spring. Each sport has its chairman who organizes the games at each meeting.

The program chairman, Virginia Wilson, plans a pot-luck supper at least once a month. In the winter season, this is held in the cafeteria, but during the warmer weather, the girls go for a hike, and then eat their supper at some spot along the way.

G.A.A. initiation is always rather interesting to watch. This year they had to carry dolls to classes for a day, wear odd colored socks, and eat with a "T" spoon at the initiation banquet.

At the end of each year Miss Prendergast invites a limited number of G.A.A. members and any other girls interested in sports, on a two-weeks' canoe trip in Wisconsin.

At left, "Tootie" Bartlett brings the yellow "pinnies," or jackets, and asks Miss Prendergast which team is to wear them. Below, time out to relax between games. Right, above, a tense and exciting moment in a G.A.A practice game.

Lots of Luck for the years to come may they be full of joy and happiness
William J Rommel

Do you see what I see? I may be wrong but doesn't this hop picture show just lots of girls dancing together while only a few males are in view? Boys—shame on you! Are you bashful? If this is the case, the social functions of W.C.H.S. should cure you. Glance through the next few pages. You may see yourself as others see you, and if not, perhaps you can profit from some one's example.

FORTUNE GUILD

The Fortune Guild, the dramatic club of Wheaton High School, is sponsored and directed by Mr. Keys, the speech teacher. At the beginning of the school year try-outs are held and the lucky upperclassmen are admitted to the club. Each member is given a chance to be active in some way—acting, directing, or working on a crew. They have a very interesting program for each meeting, whether an outside speaker, a demonstration of make-up or stage construction, or a play. Each year they give, for the benefit of everyone, one three-act play, and usually three one-act plays. Every promising young "trouper" says he has found a club which is entirely to his liking.

Gordon Frantzen, the "Bat"

JUNIOR PLAY

This year the big production of the Junior Class was "The Bat," a mystery play in three acts, in which fingerprints on a staircase and other important clues, lead to the discovery that the would-be detective is no other than the sought-for criminal in disguise. The story is enlivened by the superstitious imaginings of two elderly women and a bit of romance on the side.

The picture below shows some of the characters and the directors in an important stage of preparation. They are: Mr. Keys, Gordon Frantzen, Nanette Herran, Kenneth Witt, and Mary Alice Boyd.

The Fortune Guild production was "Big Hearted Herbert," a dramatic comedy, being the story of a man who considers himself one of the plain type and his family just "a bunch of spendthrifts." His daughter falls in love and plans to marry without letting her father know. He discovers this and orders everyone from the house. The family decide to show him how a "plain family" really would act. So when he announces that he is bringing his boss home for dinner, they conduct themselves as ignorantly as possible, making him realize how silly he is acting. He has a change of heart, and all is well.

The cast is as follows: Herbert Kalness, Harry Beach; Robert Kalness, Winkie Stevens; Elizabeth Kalness, Gypsy Burton; Martha, Ilse Karner; Herbert, Jr., Judd Vear; Alice Kalness, Carol Carlson; Andrew Goodrich, Carl Gustavson; Amy Lawrence, Carol Steen; Jim Lawrence, Alan Soukup; Mr. Goodrich, Ted Dexter; Mrs. Goodrich, Betty Donnan; Mr. Havens, George Bond; Mrs. Havens, Dorothy Chaney.

BAND

The band on parade before the Wheaton-Glenbard game.
Mr. Schoonover leads the band between halves.
The brass sextet.

THE BAND IN FULL DRESS UNIFORM

THE BAND

The band is one of the school's most prized and best known organizations. Under the direction of Mr. Ralph Boyden and Mr. Dale Schoonover, the band has attained top rankings in the contests which it has entered.

The band plays at all the football and basketball games and also at the pep meetings. This year at the football games the band did an interesting stunt. At the end of the first half, the field lights were extinguished. Then the players, holding flashlights, formed the initial letter of the school in the center of the field. To add to the effect, Dorma Mae Zarbock, drum major, led the band with an illuminated baton.

Many of the talented players have won laurels at the district contest. First division winners are Betty Fawcett, flute; Paul Smith, oboe; Ted Haberkorn, bass clarinet; Mary Lou Sauer and Harry Beach, saxophone; Warren North, sousaphone; Betsy Ross, clarinet; Betty Sewell, marimba; Dorma Zarbock, baton twirling; and the Woodwind Quartet.

May all Wheaton bands be as successful as the present one.

ORCHESTRA AND GLEE CLUBS

THE ORCHESTRA, under the direction of Miss Dirks, plays an important part in most of the musical concerts given at W.C.H.S. It has had a successful year because of sending a string quartet and two soloists to district contest, all of whom won first place and will be sent to the state contest. The annual spring concert was the most showy affair for the orchestra, as it united with the glee club to give the people a delightful musical performance. Aside from this, the orchestra assisted the juniors in the production of their class play, "The Bat." Margaret Beck, who plays a cello, will try out for Stokowski's American Youth Orchestra, which will tour South America.

GLEE CLUBS

BOYS' GLEE CLUB: BACK ROW—Muench, Carlson, Miner, Johnston, Martin, Gustavson, Bartlett, Howell, Law, Westley, Rogers, Heidenreich, Wilder; FRONT ROW—Dold, F. Halleman, Finley, Tucker.

Each year at Christmas time, the combined Glee Clubs give a concert of both sacred and secular music. This year, The Birth of Christ, a cantata, was one of the numbers, with Alberta Johnson and Hugh Coats singing the two solos; Mary Slocum also had the solo in Jesu Bambino. Joyce Tucker and Alberta Johnson represented the Glee Club at the District contest that was held in Glen Ellyn. Miss Dirks is the director of both Glee Clubs and the orchestra.

Dear Editor (ol' chum):

I wonder if you, like the rest of us, have ever wandered down the aisle in a study hall and noticed the matter being read? In going thru any freshman study hall we may find the little shavers scratching their heads over such works as Julius Caesar. In soph halls the lads and lassies struggle over Silas Marner, etc. The young men and women of the junior class work feverishly on Hamlet and Macbeth. Ah, but then struggling our way to the top we make our path undaunted to the seniors hoping to find there what we seek. Yes, there it is . . . Judd Vear tearing his curly locks trying to comprehend—not Byron, not Einstein but—SUPERMAN! Ah, what a sterling example to set for future generations.

Dear Editor:

I write on behalf of an urgent case. What this school needs is a new score board; a nice pretty one with colored lights and tinsel and all that peachy stuff.

In my capacity of being chief score board technician I recommend the buying of a new board.

Sincerely,

Walter Sauer

Dear Editor:

Many questions have been on my mind for some time and I would like your answers to them.

1. With whom does Mr. Monson walk down College Avenue on Sunday afternoons?
2. How many pairs of shoes does Mr. Roberts have?
3. Where does Jim McCarty go during lunch period?
4. Why do you, dear Editor, like to walk down Roosevelt Road and Gary Avenue?
5. How many young men stand by Dotty Kuhn's locker between periods?

These are only a few that bother me, but if you can answer these I will be satisfied.

Lovingly,

I. Q.

Dear Editor:

May I recommend the sending to Harry B. Beach a suitcase? He took up photography a couple of years ago and since then it has been awful. Why, one day alone I counted numerous articles—a few I enumerate. Still camera, movie camera, light meter, tripod, tilt top, 500 filters, sunshade, cable release, extra cartridges of film, and a whole lot of other junk. Please, dear editor, have pity on this guy and buy him a steamer trunk.

With hearty thanks and sincere appreciation we wish to express our deepest gratitude to our advisers, students, and tradesmen who have offered their services to this edition of the Wecomi. We owe a great deal to Mr. Kohli who has helped us greatly in decorating our book with fine pictures. Other photos, including many candid shots, were supplied by Bud Purrington and our official photographer, George Bond. We shall not forget the friendly advice of Mr. Art Segal, from the Bureau of Engraving. His trips here and his editing "tips" have been most enlightening.

When we come to our faculty advisers, Mr. Burger, Miss McCormick, and Mr. Sandholm, we realize there are no words capable of expressing the deep feeling we have for the most valuable and untiring guidance they have offered toward the completion of this annual.

Thanks to all who have aided us in producing this 1940 edition of the Wecomi. THE STAFF
